GET TO KNOW SOMEONE UNDER 20

Show our young people that Woodstock is a community that cares about them.

Say hello to young people you see walking to school, at the library or on the Square. Go to a school sporting event, play or concert. Talk to teens you see at their jobs or where you worship. Ask them something about their lives.

You can have a positive influence.

Turn on your “young people” radar. You have a lot to give, and a lot to gain in return.
